WOW

WOW will meet August 5 at CBC at noon. Our speaker(s) will be the summer interns that will share about what they have done this summer. Lunch will be pulled pork sandwiches, sides, and dessert for a $5 donation.

Adventure Week Appreciation

As we breathed a sigh of relief that we could check off Adventure Week for the summer of 2025, we may never know: the number of tender young hearts that heard the gospel for the first time; the children that received love and compassion that helped them deal with the trauma they have lived through this year OR those who saw a different way life could be, based on how they were treated by the leaders and teachers they had a connection with. Thank you to everyone who had a part, from the biggest to the least. God uses our contribution and magnifies it for His glory.

"Oh, magnify the LORD with me, and let us exalt
His name together!"
Psalm 34:3

Interns Wrap Up the Summer of 2025

You may not know of the Interns who have served Chatham Baptist Church this summer. They are: Evan Reindl, Carter Phillips, Lydia Foshie, Collin Kramer, Josh Atchisson and Chloe Hartman. God has invested in them through Bible Study and training and in turn they have shared with children in Back Yard Bible Clubs, Adventure Week, Refuge, Summer Camp and Youth Open House. They have also been the muscles needed to set up, clean up and put up all that is needed to minister. We have been blessed and we pray that this experience will be a significant memorial in their walk with God, "knowing that the hand of God is powerful and that they might continue to fear the Lord their God." Josh.4:24

End of Summer Picnic and Swimming

Make plans to attend the church-wide end of summer picnic and swimming event at Lake Springfield Baptist Camp on Sunday, August 10 from 4:00 pm - 8:00 pm. For the picnic, the church will provide the meat and please bring sides to add to the meal, so your assignment is: sides, swimming suit and sun screen! A lifeguard will be on duty at the pool. There are no evening services that day!
